Nasher Public: Urban Historical Reclamation and Recognition

Tenth Street Historical District Freedman's Town locations have signs with QR codes that lead visitors through an immersive augmented reality (AR) experience.

1. 1216 E. 8th Street
   Eloise Lundy Park
2. 1218 East 9th Street
   Former site of Dr. Nathaniel Watts's residence and office
3. 1026 East 10th Street
   Former site of Elizabeth Chapel (est 1889)
4. 102 Cliff Street
   Tenth Street Business Community / Former site of Simpson Pharmacy
5. 1402 Plum Street
   Former site of Dr. Mamie McKnight's residence

Nasher Public: Urban Historical Reclamation and Recognition is made possible by leading support from the National Endowment for the Arts, Sapphire Foundation, Hattie Mae Lesley Foundation, and the Embrey Family Foundation. Generous support is provided by Humanities Texas and Brenda L. Jackson. Additional support is provided by Dr. Donna J. Barefield, Jessica and William Barefield, Effie Booker, Grace Daniels, Dr. W. Marvin Dulaney, Winstona Chadwick, Helen Giddings / Multiplex Inc., Pamela E. Ice, Brenda Lauderback, Cynthia Nunn, Mary and Shadrach Sias, Wendy and Jeremy Strick, and Colette Vallot.

Nasher Sculpture Center

