

CONTENTS

For more on dining, movies, arts and music, go to GuideLive.com

6 | BEST BETS

Our critics' tips for what to see and do in D-FW: Aerosmith and Cheap Trick at American Airlines Center, Nicki Minaj at Verizon Theatre and more.

8 | MOVIES

Reviews include The Watch and Trishna.

■ Plus Short Takes, Film Events and Parents' Guide.

18 | DINING

Leslie Brenner reviews Snack Global Kitchen and Bar.

■ Plus a review of Garden Cafe in East Dallas, Dining Events and restaurant listings.

28 | GO & DO

Columnist Joy Tipping explores the interactive installation "Cuddle on the Tightrope (Kink)" at the Nasher Sculpture Center.

■ Plus we've got the scoop on a celebration of DART's Orange Line, a gamer gathering, fashion events and more.

36 | POP MUSIC

Music critic Mario Tarradell spotlights the salsa sounds of Havana NRG, which is celebrating 10 years of putting fans on the dance floor.

■ Plus nightclubs columnist Mr. Dallas gets ready for a pool party.

42 | ARTS

Many summer music series are winding down, but Addison keeps the music going through August.

■ Plus the DMA opens a show of artworks from the southern kingdoms of ancient Mexico.

52 | FAMILY FUN

Catch them while you can: The Wiggles' farewell tour is your last chance to see the original foursome.

■ Plus Kids' Corner, free fun and more.

ON THE COVER

A gold pendant in "The Legacy of the Plumed Serpent" exhibition at the Dallas Museum of Art. See story about the show on Page 48.

Photo © The Trustees of the British Museum/Art Resource, N.Y.

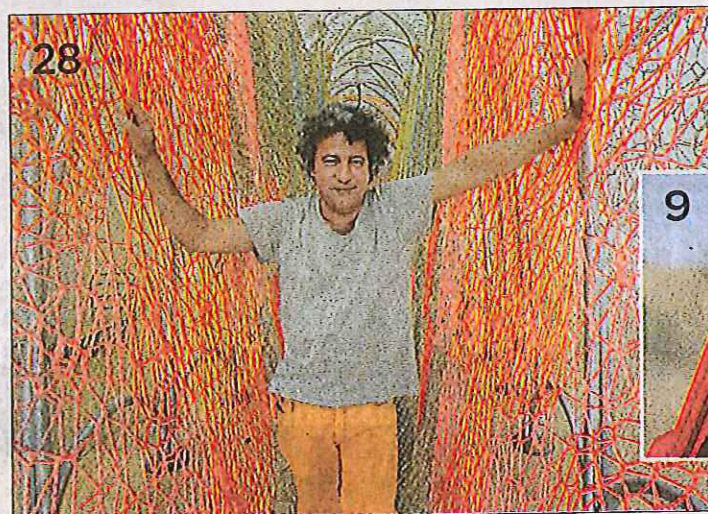

Design by Marilyn Bishkin/Staff Designer

18

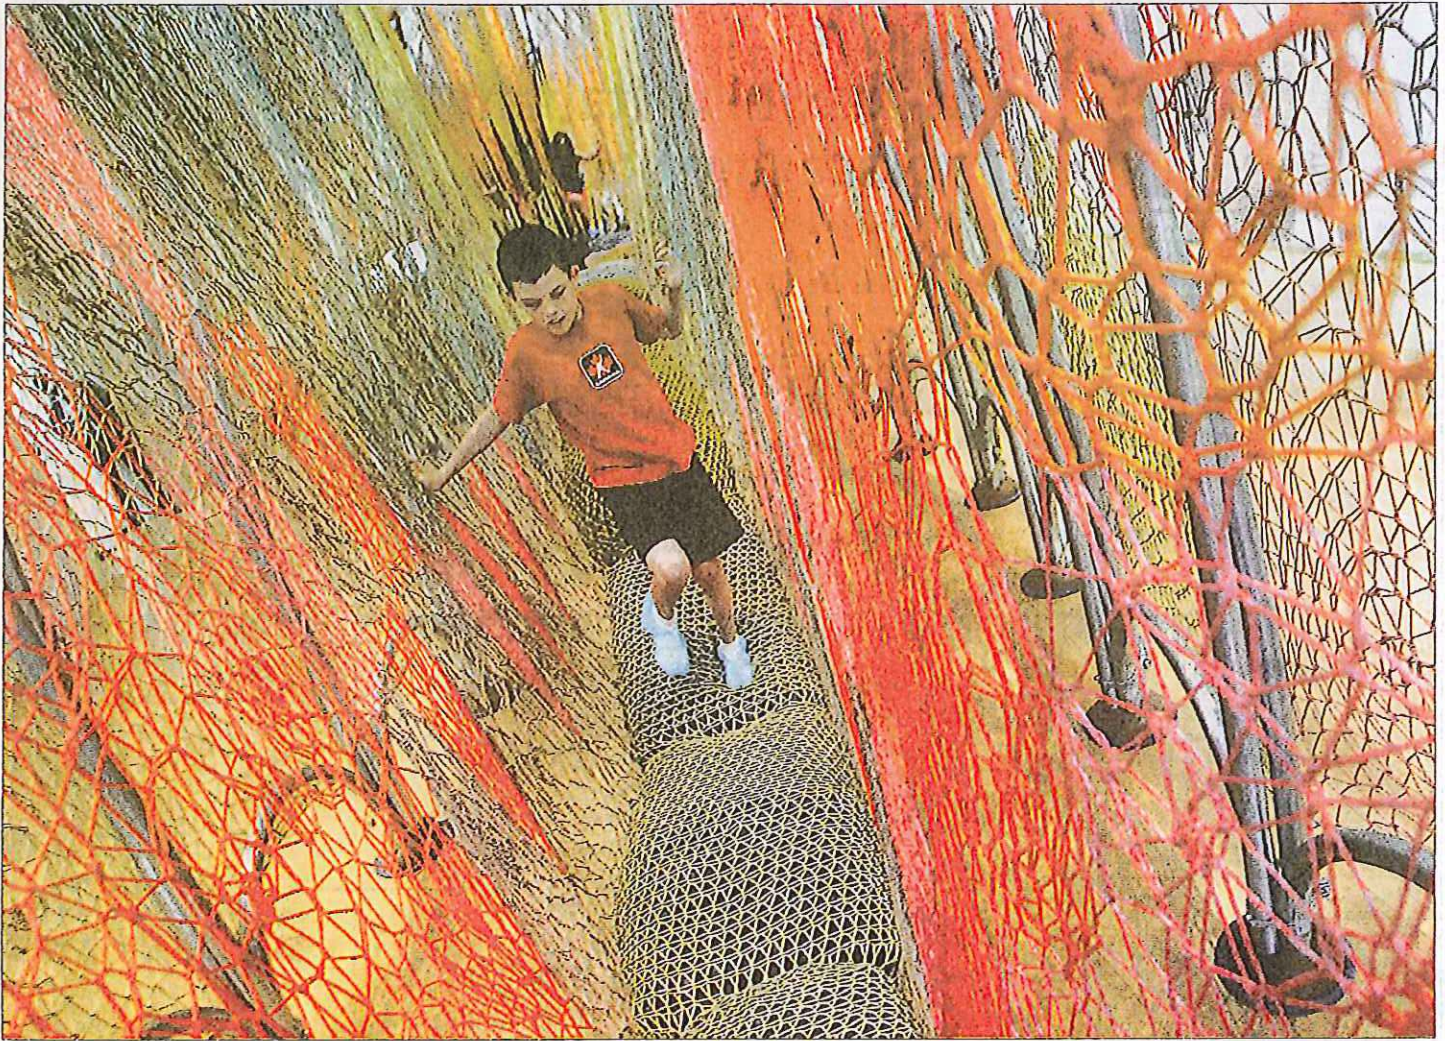

36

28

9

Louis DeLuca/Staff Photographer

Jacob Dashiell of Lewisville plays in the "Cuddle on the Tightrope (Kink)" giant crocheted installation at the Nasher Sculpture Center.

The Nasher nets a winner

Unleash your inner 10-year-old
in artist's suspended,
crocheted sculpture