As part of its 10th anniversary celebration, the Nasher Sculpture Center officially unveiled the 10 works from its Nasher Xchange program on October 19. The 10 works by 10 different artists are located in 10 different spots around Dallas, the first citywide museum-organized public art exhibition to ever occur in the United States.

Staying close to home, Alfredo Jaar's Music (Everything I know I learned the day my son was born) was installed at the rear of the garden at the Nasher Sculpture Center over an existing water feature.
