An immersive week-long summer program for educators presented by: The Warehouse, Nasher Sculpture Center, Dallas Museum of Art, Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, and Kimbell Art Museum.

Participating middle and high school teachers are invited to:

- Deepen their understanding of contemporary and modern art and architecture at renowned arts institutions in Dallas and Fort Worth;
- Develop strategies to teach, interpret, and use works of art in the classroom and in museum galleries;
- Connect with collections, resources, and staff at each museum; and
- Exchange ideas with other classroom teachers.

Tuition:

Museum Forum for Teachers tuition is $250. The cost includes all instruction, materials, and lunch each day. Early Application deadline is April 4, 2014 (discounted rate $225). Regular Application deadline is May 30, 2014 ($250). Program sessions are held at each of the participating institutions and CPE Credit is available for participation.
