Press Release

Nasher Sculpture Center Announces Spring Break Offerings: ½ Price Week-day Admission & 'til Midnight at the Nasher

DALLAS, Texas (January 16, 2014) – The Nasher Sculpture Center is pleased to announce plans for spring break 2014, which includes half price admission for the week and the return of the popular FREE family event, 'til Midnight at the Nasher.

Visitors during spring break from March 8-16, 2014 will enjoy half price admission to the Nasher Sculpture Center, including free access to the new exhibition, David Bates. Admission during spring break is only $5 for adults, $3.50 for students and seniors, and FREE for members and children 12 and under.

The whole family will enjoy the return of 'til Midnight at the Nasher on Friday, March 14, 2014 held in conjunction with the Dallas Arts District Block Party. The FREE event features a concert with Dallas-based band, Decades, followed by a screening of the classic fantasy flick, Labyrinth, directed by Jim Henson and starring David Bowie. Guided tours and special social media challenges will also take place throughout the evening in collaboration with the Dallas Museum of Art and Crow Collection. Guests may pre-reserve picnic baskets at Nashersculpturecenter.org/tilmidnight or enjoy salads, sandwiches, snacks, and beverages at the Nasher Cafe.

About the Nasher Sculpture Center:

Open since 2003 and located in the heart of the Dallas Arts District, the Nasher Sculpture Center is home to one of the finest collections of modern and contemporary sculptures in the world, the Raymond and Patsy Nasher Collection, featuring more than 300 masterpieces by Calder, Giacometti, Matisse, Picasso, Rodin, and more. The longtime dream of the late Raymond and Patsy Nasher, the museum was designed by world-renowned architect Renzo Piano in collaboration with landscape architect Peter Walker.

Hailed by the "USA Today" as one of the great sculpture gardens where art enhances nature, the roofless museum seamlessly integrates the indoor galleries with the outdoor spaces creating a museum experience unlike any other in the world. On view in the light-filled galleries and amid the landscaped grounds are rotating works from the Collection, as well as blockbuster exhibitions and one-of-a-kind installations by the most celebrated artists of our times. In addition to the indoor and outdoor gallery spaces, the Center contains an auditorium, education and research facilities, a cafe, and a store.

The Nasher brings the best of contemporary culture to Dallas through special programs designed to engage visitors, including artist talks, lecture programs, contemporary music concerts, educational classes and exclusive member events.

The Nasher Sculpture Center is open Tuesday through Sunday from 11 am to 5 pm and until 11 pm for special events, and from 10 am to 5 pm on the first Saturday of each month. Admission is $10 for adults, $7 for seniors, $5 for students, and free for members and children 12 and under, and includes access to special exhibitions. For more information, visit www.NasherSculptureCenter.org.
