

RED ROVER

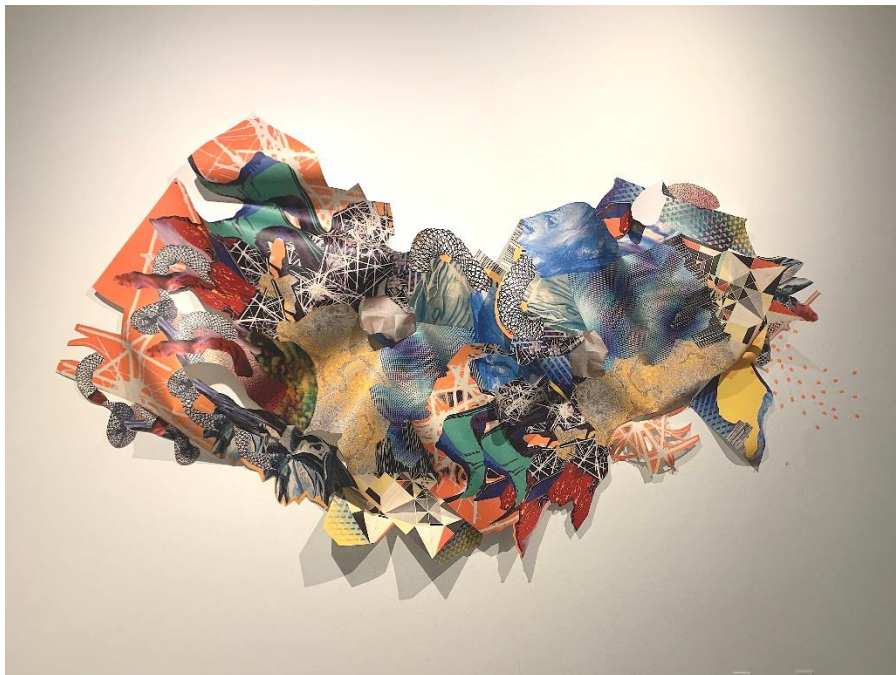

Wall Sculpture
with Sara Cardona

Let's make a small scale wall installation! You will need a few push pins and some extra "flair" such as post-it notes, those colored tabs used to flag a page or signature, even stickers!

On the next page, I've made a drawing inspired by the Mars Rover. Print out several copies of the drawing and color them in different ways. When you have multiples, cut them out in different parts and use a glue stick to glue those parts of them together to make an even larger piece.

Then, pin it to the wall and add your extra flair! You have a collage-based wall installation.
